Welcome to Los Alamos...

We're glad you're here! Whether you're here on business, visiting friends and family, or checking out our trails, our National Parks, and our unique brand of scientific heritage—we want to make sure every part of your visit is exceptional. Hungry? Want to relax with a beverage? Need to plug into Wi-Fi or pick-up a gift or memento to bring back home? This guide will tell you what we offer and where to find it. Be sure to pick up the companion See & Do brochure, an insider's guide to the places and experiences we share with our favorite people.

Helpful Hints

Travel Truths

When visiting Los Alamos on the weekdays, remember our unique little town almost doubles in size as commuters and visitors spend the day with us. During mornings heading into town, and evenings heading out of town, Trinity Dr, Diamond Dr, Central Ave and NM-4 can be very busy. In addition, the lunch hour in downtown is a bustling time, with friends, students, families and coworkers eating together at the local restaurants. Plan ahead to avoid delays.

Tips From the Locals

For a fun winter outing, swing by the Aquatic Center and rent snowshoes and poles for the whole family. Then head to the Los Alamos County Golf Course for a great place to snowshoe and cross-country ski, right here in town! Afterwards, warm up with snacks and drinks at the Cottonwood on the Greens Restaurant inside the Golf Course Community Building.

New Mexico True Burrito Byway

It should be no surprise that New Mexico claims the invention of the breakfast burrito. It is the wrapped wonder that brings spice to the morning! Join us for breakfast in Los Alamos at Chili Works or Viola's—official stops on the Burrito Byway—and learn the answer to the question, "Red, green or Christmas?"

New Mexico True Certified

When you buy jewelry, textiles, arts and crafts, food, wine, beer, and other products with the New Mexico True Certified mark, you know they are authentically "New Mexico True"—made, grown, or sourced right here in New Mexico with pride, love, and the finest quality ingredients.

Uniquely Los Alamos

Celebrate the importance of fresh, high-quality ingredients at local eateries that tickle your taste buds. Whether you're strictly vegan or strictly meat and potatoes, find comfort food for everyone at Pig+Fig Café in White Rock. Or enjoy the warmth and charm of the Blue Window Bistro in downtown Los Alamos for a local atmosphere. Get the best homemade bagels outside of New York at Ruby K's Bagel Café, or grab a sandwich named after a local at Daniel's Café & Mary's Gelato.

Breweries & Wine

Thirsty for a good craft beer? Hang with the locals at Bathtub Row Brewing Co-op! Or stop in at Boese Brothers Brewpub and enjoy a craft beer with a green chile grilled cheese sandwich. Pajarito Brewpub & Grill and Cottonwood on the Greens feature New Mexico beers and wines. Stop by Blue Window Bistro for craft cocktails and prestigious wines. Did someone say wine? Reserve a seat at one of Pig+Fig's themed wine dinners!
