Helpful Hints

Travel Truths
When visiting Los Alamos on the weekdays, remember our unique little town almost doubles in size as commuters and visitors spend the day with us. During mornings heading into town, and evenings heading out of town, Trinity Dr, Diamond Dr, Central Ave and NM-4 can be very busy. In addition, the lunch hour in downtown is a bustling time, with friends, students, families and coworkers eating together at the local restaurants. Plan ahead to avoid delays.

Tips From the Locals
Spend the morning exploring Bandelier National Monument, then grab a delicious Green Chile Enchiladas or Indian Taco at the café for lunch. Head up the hill to Los Alamos and swing by the Aquatic Center to pick up putters and balls for the whole family for an afternoon of mini golf at East Park!

New Mexico True Burrito Byway
It should be no surprise that New Mexico claims the invention of the breakfast burrito. It is the wrapped wonder that brings spice to the morning! Join us for breakfast in Los Alamos at Chili Works or Viola’s—official stops on the Burrito Byway—or any of the other excellent breakfast stops, and learn the answer to the question, “Red, green or Christmas?”

New Mexico True Certified
When you buy jewelry, textiles, arts and crafts, food, wine, beer, and other products with the New Mexico True Certified mark, you know they are authentically “New Mexico True”—made, grown, or sourced right here in New Mexico with pride, love, and the finest quality ingredients.

Uniquely Los Alamos
Celebrate the importance of fresh, high-quality ingredients at local eateries that tickle your taste buds. Whether you’re strictly vegan or strictly meat and potatoes, find comfort food for everyone at Pig + Fig Café in White Rock. Or enjoy the warmth and charm of the Blue Window Bistro in downtown Los Alamos. Get the best homemade bagels outside of New York at Ruby K’s Bagel Café, or grab a sandwich named after a town resident at Daniel’s Café & Mary’s Gelato.

Breweries, Distilleries & Wine
Thirsty for a good craft beer? Hang with the locals at Bathtub Row Brewing Co—or stop in at Boise Brothers Brewpub and enjoy a craft beer with a green chili grilled cheese sandwich. Fajaro Brewpub & Grill and Cottonwood on the Greens feature New Mexico beers and wines. Stop by Blue Window Bistro or The Long Pour for craft cocktails and prestigious wines. Did someone say wine? Reserve a seat at one of Pig+Fig’s themed wine dinners!
